PALM BEACH GARDENS & JUPITER
FLORIDA WEEKLY®
IN THE KNOW. IN THE NOW.

WEEK OF APRIL 16-22, 2015 | www.FloridaWeekly.com | Vol. V, No. 27 • FREE

Celebrity chefs have brought attention to foods more than ever before.

COURTESY PHOTOS; ILLUSTRATION BY ERIC RADDATZ / FLORIDA WEEKLY

Raise a fork, pop a cork, help the American Red Cross

SPECIAL TO FLORIDA WEEKLY

Here's an event to which we all can raise a glass, as we wine, dine and help the American Red Cross during the seventh annual Legacy Place Fork & Cork, set for 7-9 p.m. April 23 in Palm Beach Gardens.

The event, formerly known as Legacy Place Food & Wine Festival, is a celebration of all things food, wine, beer and spirits, and will offer unlimited food and drink samplings, live music, games and entertainment.

"It's a great community event where people can eat, drink and be merry while doing good," said Amy Mauser, the American Red Cross' regional chief development officer for South Florida.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the American Red Cross, a nonprofit organization that shelters, feeds and provides

SEE CORK, A35 ▶

INSIDE

MythBusters
The guys bring their Discovery Channel show to Kravis. B1 ▶

Networking/Society
Who was out/about in the Palm Beaches. 21 pages inside. ▶

Meet Percy
This friendly kitty lost his home when his human fell ill. A6 ▶

Tip a hat
Well-made folk art always commands respect. A31 ▶

Download our FREE App today
Available on the iTunes and Android App Store.

PRSRT STD
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
FORT MYERS, FL
PERMIT NO. 715

OPINION	A4	REAL ESTATE	A29	EVENTS	B4-7
PETS	A6	ANTIQUES	A31	PUZZLES	B10
HEALTHY LIVING	A15	ARTS	B1	GREENMARKETS	B22
BUSINESS	A27	SANDY DAYS	B2	DINING	B27

Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center
ER SETTING THE GOLD STANDARD IN EMERGENCY CARE IN THE HEART OF OUR COMMUNITY
Call 561.625.5070 for a physician referral