education's role in entrepreneurship in the region.

He said eMerge has helped raise his company's profile. "eMerge is a great platform to showcase South Florida's best and brightest and attract other entrepreneurs, investors and talent to further strengthen our economy," Cane said.

Fort Lauderdale-based Spirit Airlines' CEO Ben Baldanza will be a speaker, talking about transforming transportation for a growing population, along with Verizon Vehicle CEO Andres Irlando, also on May 4.

Universities participating include Florida Atlantic University, Lynn University, Nova Southeastern University, Florida International University, the University of Miami, Miami Dade College and St. Thomas University. Last year, eMerge had some 3,000 students come through the event, organizers said.

Entrepreneurs from the FAU Tech Runway startup program in Boca Raton also will participate, Gonzalez said.</
