THE GUIDE TO SUMMER

What to do, see and lust over this season

1 FIVE ARTISTS

The Boca Raton Museum of Art will spotlight the work of five Florida-based artists, including Carol Prusa of Boca Raton (work pictured), during the "All Florida Invitational" exhibition, which will be on display from July 16 to Sept. 25. ($12/adults, $10/seniors, students, members and children 12 and younger free, bocamuseum.org)

2 DANCE-OFF FOR CHARITY

Community leaders will take the stage to compete alongside professional dancers from Fred Astaire Dance Studio during Boca's Ballroom Battle on Aug. 20 at the Boca Raton Resort & Club to benefit the George Snow Scholarship Fund. (Tickets from $100, ballroombattle.com)

3 BRAZIL MEETS BOCA

South Florida's annual Brazilian Independence Day Celebration in downtown Boca Raton at Sanborn Square on Sept. 10 promises entertainment including live music, Capoeira dancers, carnival dancers, samba drummers and authentic Brazilian food and cocktails. (Free, downtownboca.org)

4 WET-N-WILD WEEKEND

Escape the summer heat and bring the whole family to Flamingo Gardens for Wet-n-Wild Weekend on July 16 and 17. Kids of all ages can enjoy water slides, games, activities and contests. There will also be a narrated tram tour. (Admission $6.45/ages 3-11, $9.95/ages 12 and older, ages 2 and younger free, flamingogardens.org)

5 ASIAN FARE IN THE GARDENS

The Sushi & Stroll series returns to Morikami Museum and Japanese Gardens in Delray Beach on July 8, Aug. 12 and Sept. 9 with food, galleries and drumming performances by Fushu Daiko. ($8/adults, $6/ages 4-10, members and ages 3 and younger free, morikami.org)

6 EVENING AT THE BALLET

Boca Ballet Theatre presents

"Giselle," a classic and tragic story with themes of death and love that was first performed in Paris in 1841. The ballet will be held at Countess de Hoernle Theatre at Boca's Spanish River High School on July 29, 30 and 31. (Tickets from $35, bocaballet.org)

7 THEATER WITH A TWIST

The Broward Center for the Performing Arts presents Todrick Hall's "Straight Outta Oz," a touring musical twist on L. Frank Baum's classic tale. The tour makes its stop in Fort Lauderdale on July 27. (Tickets from $27.50, browardcenter.org)
