

THE TO DO LIST

Fun things to see and experience around town

HOTTICKET

Musician and songwriter Willie Nelson will be on stage at 7:30 p.m. today at the Pompano Beach Amphitheater. Nelson fans will have the opportunity to sing and dance along to his well-known hits like “On the Road Again,”

Willie Nelson

“To All the Girls I’ve Loved Before” and “Pancho and Lefty.” Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and special guest Levon will open the show. Tickets start at $49.50. 1806 NE Sixth St., Pompano Beach. Information: 954-519-5500; www.theampmpompano.org

AND DON'T FORGET

■ Plein Air Art Festival, Saturday through March 11, various locations in Palm Beach and Martin counties. See website for schedule information.

■ Station Music Festival, Saturday, Elizabeth Ave Station, West Palm Beach. Tickets: from $10.

■ Boca Raton Jewish Film Festival, Sunday through March 17, Regal Shadowood 16, Boca Raton. Tickets: from $13.

The Capitol Steps, a musical group known for performing political satire, will be on stage at the Kravis Center's Rinker Playhouse today through March 18. PHOTO COURTESY OF THE KRAVIS CENTER

Valerie Constantine (left) and her sister, Lynne, are the duo behind the pen name Liv Constantine and will speak at Bookmania! in Stuart on Saturday on the panel “All in the Family: Writing Teams.” PHOTO BY ERIKA LIVINGSTON

■ Michael McDonald, Sunday, Parker Playhouse at the Broward Center, Fort Lauderdale. Tickets: from $43.

■ “South Pacific,” Tuesday through March 25, Maltz Jupiter Theatre, Jupiter. Tickets: from $63.

■ The Illusionists, Tuesday through March 11, Kravis Center, West Palm Beach. Tickets: from $28.

■ Peter Yarrow, Wednesday, Crest Theatre at Old School Square, Delray Beach. Tickets: from $57.

■ “Brigadoon,” Thursday, Wick Theatre, Boca Raton. Tickets: from $80.

■ John Hammond, Thursday, Lyric Theatre, Stuart. Tickets: from $42.

■ An Evening with Bill Maher, Sunday, Kravis Cen-

Miami City Ballet presents its Program Three today through Sunday at the Kravis Center's Dreyfoos Hall.

PHOTO COURTESY OF THE KRAVIS CENTER

ter, West Palm Beach. Tickets: from $40.50.

1. LISTEN

Bill Murray and friends

Actor and comedian Bill Murray shifts from his usual comedic performance to a poetic musical ensemble with Jan Vogler, Mira Wang and Vanessa Perez at 7:30 p.m. today at Mizner Park Amphitheater. The performance titled “New Worlds:

An evening of music, poetry and prose” will include a combination of readings by Murray, accompanied by classical music. Tickets start at $75. 500 Plaza Real, Boca Raton. Information: 561-393-7984; www.myboca.us

2. DANCE

Ballet in a ballroom

Miami City Ballet's Program Three will delight dance aficionados with four performances at 8 p.m. today, 2 and 8 p.m. Saturday and 1 p.m. Sunday at the Kravis Center's Dreyfoos Hall. The staple piece, “Theme and Variations,” is set in a lavish 19th-century ballroom to the moving music of Russian composer, Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky. Tickets start at $25. 701 Okeechobee Blvd., West Palm Beach. Information: 561-832-7469; www.kravis.org

3. BROWSE

Calling all bibliophiles

The Library Foundation of Martin County and the Martin County Library System present their annual all-day Bookmania! event from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday at the Jensen Beach High School Performing Arts Center. The event will have a variety of activities that include author panels, book signings and a used book sale. Free. 2875 NW Goldenrod Road, Stuart. Information: www.libraryfoundationmc.org

4. SEE

Jewels on display

For the seventh year in a row, the Norton Museum of Art brings to the public “Bijoux!,” an exhibition and sale of contemporary art jewelry from around the world during museum operating hours today through Sunday. The event is also an opportunity to meet and mingle with participating international artists. Free. 1451 S. Olive Ave., West Palm Beach. Information: 561-832-5196; www.norton.org

5. LAUGH

Capital hilarity

Satirical ensemble The Capitol Steps blends bipartisan humor for a unique performance at 7:30 p.m. today at the Kravis Center's Rinker Playhouse. The group has recorded more than 30 albums since 1981, including their latest, “Orange is the New Barack.” The show runs through March 18. $40. 701 Okeechobee Blvd., West Palm Beach. Information: 561-832-7469; www.kravis.org