Juanes to play Miami on Dec. 4

Tickets for Key Biscayne resident's AAA concert go on sale March 13.

By Ben Crandell
Staff writer

Rock trailblazer Juanes will bring his critically lauded Loco de Amor tour to Miami's AmericanAirlines Arena on Dec. 4.

Tickets for the concert are scheduled to go on sale 10 a.m. Friday, March 13, via Ticketmaster, with a presale starting at 10 a.m. March 11 at Juanes.net. Prices are not yet available, but range from $25 to $90 in other cities. A dollar from every ticket sold goes to Juanes' Fundación Mi Sangre.

The Key Biscayne resident (called a "Colombian Rock God" by Entertainment Weekly) has never been hotter, with a historic, Spanish-language Grammy Awards performance of his new single, "Juntos (Together)." The song, from the soundtrack to Disney's Kevin Costner-starring "McFarland USA," also topped iTunes Latin sales chart for the past week.

Joined by Maroon 5, Juanes also helped balance the recent "Victoria's Secret Swimsuit Special" that aired in prime time on CBS.

The Loco de Amor tour takes its name from Juanes' excellent 2014 album of the same name. The opening act on the tour will be Mexican alt-rocker and actress Ximena Sariñana.

Florida Georgia Line returning to West Palm Beach

Tickets for the bro-country duo's May 28 show go sale today

By Nick Sortal
Staff writer

Two hot guys are one of South Florida's hottest tickets: Florida Georgia Line is coming to West Palm Beach May 28 for a show at Coral Sky Amphitheatre. Tickets go on sale at 10 a.m. Friday, March 13.

The duo, which consists of Tyler Hubbard (Georgia) and Brian Kelley (Florida), hit the charts in 2012 with the No. 1 "Cruise." Four No. 1s later, they're headlining a show that is part of Coral Sky's Country Megaticket. Songs such as "This Is How We Roll" and "Get Your Shine On," plus the endorsement of Luke Bryan, have been at the forefront of the bro-country movement, which largely consists of songs about drinking, girls and good times. As is the case with Bryan, Hubbard and Kelley provide plenty of stage theatrics, jumping, gesturing and wiggling while wearing shirts that may not meet the dress code, at, say TGI Fridays.

Tickets for the seated area at Cruzan cost $59.75 plus fees, while lawn tickets cost $25 plus fees, via Ticketmaster.com, LiveNation.com or 1-800-745-3000. Live Nation first sold ticket packages to all 11 Country Megaticket shows, which begins with Darius Rucker May 23 and ends with Jason Aldean Oct. 24. Rucker and Florida Georgia Line are the only shows for which individual tickets have gone on sale.

Florida Georgia Line has been here plenty in recent months. The pair played the WKIS Chili Cook Off in Pembroke Pines in January 2013, then opened for Luke Bryan in 2014 in West Palm. Last year, they preceded Jason Aldean in West Palm, although by then everyone in the amphitheater knew they were popular enough to be headliners.

Thomas Rhett and Frankie Ballard will open the May 28 show.
