

Boca announces free summer concerts and movies

More tribute bands, a "Frozen" sing-along and Latin music are in the mix for 11 free concerts and three movies at Mizner Park Amphitheater this summer.

The city's annual Music, Movies and More series on Friday and Saturday nights from May 30 to Aug. 21 will also include a beer garden under the clock tower for the eight tribute band concerts.

"Last year we had a beer sponsorship and we tried out having a craft beer garden, and this year New Belgium [Brewing Company] has several different brands; Fat Tire is the best known," said Chrissy Biagiotti, the city's community relations manager. "For every tribute band concert, we'll have a beer garden and picnic tables up there with free samples for people 21 and older, and they can buy the product."

The city will also have regular food and beverage vendors; coolers and pets are not allowed.

Tribute band will include favorites like Turnstiles, the Billy Joel tribute band and new ones.

"We did try to mix it up and added several new bands that never played at the amphitheater; one is the Bon Jovi tribute Keep the Faith and Dave Matthews and Led Zeppelin," Biagiotti said.

Keep the Faith's lead vocals' Polo Staber looks a lot like Bon Jovi.

"We always strive to be as authentic as possible with a look and sound in an honest way," Staber said. "We started off winning the tribute contest at the South Florida Fair and our keyboard player knew about Mizner and we said we could bring something to the table."

Staber attributes tribute bands' popularity to demand.

"You have these legendary bands that are gone or don't play anymore like

The Beatles," he said.

Bon Jovi is 53 and still performs.

"When you have an iconic band like Bon Jovi, the look is very important," added Staber, of Naples.

"The guys in the band resemble them and are incredible musicians to boot. It's a very physical show. There's 30 years of material and 10 albums. We're playing Roger Dean Stadium the month before."

"We were approached by every tribute band, and we looked at where they have played and what audiences they have played for and our demographics," Biagiotti said. "We tried to choose things for the typical age range from 30 to 60 we have for these shows."

The free summer series also includes two concerts by The Symphonia Boca Raton and a Father's Day
