concert by the Florida Atlantic University Concert Band.

"We have confirmed June 5, The Symphonia will present 'A Little Latin Night Music,' including selections by Manuel de Falla [a Spanish composer] and Ernesto Leucona [a Cuban composer], and on Aug. 21 The Symphonia Brass & Friends will do 'From Bach to Bernstein,'" she said. "The FAU concert is a big band concert...It's family oriented and the same day as the car show, so people can come down and spend the whole afternoon."

The three movies scheduled are by request.

"We thought the movies would be more for teenagers and families and the sun doesn't go down until 8 p.m.," she added.

Concert goers can also expect cars and boats on display, courtesy of sponsors Alpine Jaguar again, and a new one, MarineMax, she added.

All the concerts and movies are bring-your-own seating or rent a chair for $5, and coolers and pets are not allowed.
