emotional support to victims of disasters; supplies about 40 percent of the nation's blood; teaches skills that save lives; provides international humanitarian aid; and supports military members and their families.

"We are looking forward to the event because it is a great opportunity for us to raise money in the community, to see the work that we do and develop relationships with the business community," Ms. Mauser said.

That community includes restaurants from throughout the area that participate each year in the event, which is held in booths that wind around the streets of Legacy Place.

You can stop, nibble, sip and enjoy the equivalent of a full meal and more from some of the area's top restaurants.

This year, participating restaurants and businesses include Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza, Bagel Boyz, Bizaare, Bonefish Grill, Cabo Flats, Café Bistro at Nordstrom, Café Chardonnay, The Capital Grille, Carrabas, Chili's, Chowder-Heads, Cool'a Fishbar, DD's Cupcake Shoppe, Gelato Grotto, Hoffman's Chocolates, Jimmy John's, La Fontana Pizza, Melting Pot, Moe's, Onli Beverages, Potions in Motion, Publix Greenwise, Ruth's Chris, Sandpipers Cove, Seasons52, SelzerMan, Tabica Grill, Table 427 and Texas De Brazil.

That covers the fork component of the event's name.

Oh, and about that cork: Look for a variety of wines from vineyards around the world, courtesy of presenting sponsor Total Wine & More.

Don't feel like wine? Don't worry.

You can sip craft beers courtesy of Gold Coast Beverages and New Belgium Brewing.

And there will be plenty of non-alcoholic beverages as well.

Tickets are $50 for general admission; VIP tickets, at $75 per person, offer extended tastings from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and admission to the Florida Weekly VIP Lounge, presented by The Capital Grille. All proceeds from this event will aid the American Red Cross. Legacy Place is at PGA Boulevard just east of Alternate A1A in Palm Beach Gardens. Info: legacyplaceforkandcork.com. ■
