

5

THINGS
TO DO

HOT TICKET

Singer and songwriter Jackson Browne will perform at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at The Fillmore at the Jackie Gleason Theater. Browne has written and performed an array of popular songs, such as "Fountain of Sorrow," "Running on Empty" and "Doctor My Eyes." Tickets start at $55. 1700 Washington Ave., Miami Beach. Information: 305-673-7300; www.fillmoremb.com

AND DON'T FORGET

- Nikki Glaser, today and Saturday, Palm Beach Improv, West Palm Beach. Tickets start at $25.
- Art Affair, through Sunday, Downtown West Palm Beach. Tickets start at $20.
- Coastal Fest, today, Harbourside Place, Jupiter. Free admission.
- Retrospect Art Exhibit Opening Reception, today, Arts Garage, Delray Beach. Free.
- Culture & Cocktails: "Platter Chatter," Monday, The Colony Hotel, Palm Beach. Tickets start at $75.

Miami City Ballet presents "A Midsummer Night's Dream" today through Sunday as its farewell to season production. [COURTESY OF THE KRAVIS CENTER]

1 TASTE Seafood delight

The Palm Beach County Seafood & Music Festival will take place today through Sunday at Abacoa. All food (available at additional cost) is cooked on-site by local restaurants and food purveyors incorporating only the freshest ingredients. Seafood such as grouper, mahi, stone crabs, oysters, shrimp and soft-shell crabs will be used in preparation of the seafood entrees with all the seafood ingredients being local, sustainable ocean resources from Florida's coastal waters. A variety of vegetarian and rice dishes will also be offered, along with drinks and several side dishes and dessert items. Admission is free, times vary. 1200 Town Center Drive, Jupiter. Information: 941-487-8061; www.seafoodfestivals.com

2 GO A Palm Beach life

The author of the upcoming novel "A Palm Beach Wife" Susannah Marren, will be hosting a talk and book signing at 6 p.m. Wednesday at the Mandel Public Library. Marren, the pseudonym of well-known author Susan Shapiro Barash, is mostly known for her non-fiction books that focus on women's issues, most notably the bestseller, "Tripping the Prom Queen" which deal with the topic of female rivalry. Free. 411 Clematis St., West Palm Beach. Marren will also be at a free event hosted by the Palm Beach Book Festival at 6 p.m. today at 375 S. County Rd., Palm Beach. Information: 561-868-7700; www.wpb.org/departments/library; www.eventbrite.com

3 SEE A world of films

The whole family will enjoy a selection of short films from Colorado's acclaimed Telluride Mountain Festival at "Family Fare: Mountainfilm on Tour," at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts. These uplifting stories are told in fun, engaging ways to entertain and inspire families to talk about relevant social issues. $5. 701 Okeechobee Blvd., West Palm Beach. Information: 561-832-7469; www.kravis.org

4 DANCE Shakespearean magic

To celebrate its season finale, Miami City Ballet brings this brand new production of William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" to the stage, today through Sunday at the Kravis Center for the Performing Arts. The audience will enjoy the fantastic story of magically entangled lovers, fairy royalty, magic spells, and happy-ever-afters in the Bard's timeless tale. Tickets start at $29, times vary. Information: 561-832-7469; www.kravis.org

5 CELEBRATE The place we call home

Come celebrate Earth Day 2019 with this free community event that begins at 11 a.m. Saturday at Intracoastal Park. The highlights will include a free tree giveaway, kids' activities, recycled arts & crafts, eco-friendly products, yoga demonstration, food trucks and paddleboard, kayak rentals. Free. 100 E. Boynton Beach Blvd., Boynton Beach. Information: 561-742-6221; www.boynton-beach.org