

THINGS TO DO

1. Winter Concert Nights featuring Crazy Fingers

This Grateful Dead tribute band will keep the night hopping in Royal Palm Beach with one classic after another and plenty of extended jams. There will also be multiple food trucks to supply those food and beverage desires.

The event is 5 to 9 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19. 11600 Poinciana Blvd., Royal Palm Beach. Free. Information: royalpalm-beachfl.gov

2. Newcomer's guide for gardening in Florida

In this informative class, garden designer Nada Vergili will take you on tour through Mounts Botanical Garden, discuss which plants thrive in a sub-tropical climate, how to improve soil quality, what to plant in sun/shade (or a little bit of both), and how to avoid common mistakes people make when moving to South Florida.

This class will be held 10 a.m. to noon Friday, Jan. 19. 531 N. Military Trail, West Palm Beach. Members $25, nonmembers $35. Class size limited, registration required. Information: mounts.org

3. Art, pottery, jewelry and more at Boca Fest

This 36-year tradition comes to Town
